WELCOME

to the Gawler & Districts 4WD Club

Previously known as "The Light Four Wheel Drive Club of SA Inc." this active 4WD club was founded in 2002. Members voted at the March 2008 meeting to change the club's name and meet at Gawler to give the club a more recognizable name and a more central meeting place.

It has become a very social club and has run many a successful day, weekend, long weekend and extended trips. We are a member of the Four Wheel Drive South Australia that incorporates the Driver Training Unit. Most meetings include a Guest Speaker and a monthly club newsletter.

If you are a visitor to tonight's meeting, we welcome you and your family to our club. Please ask as many questions as you want. You can join us on up to 3 club outings before becoming a member. Trip Leaders run each outing and will be glad to help you with tips on four-wheel driving and how to get the best from your vehicle. If you would like to join us on any trips and enjoy what 4WD can really bring, please fill out your details on our Trip Sheets.

The Club meets every second Friday in the month at 7.30 pm at the Gawler Elderly Centre Hall in Fourteenth Street, Gawler.

The meeting dates are shown on page 3 of this newsletter.

Annual membership fees are $60 per vehicle/family, plus $10 joining fee.

Editor's Report:

Hello everyone and welcome to the November edition of the Newsletter. What a year it's been, let's hope that 2022 finds us almost back to normal doing and going to the places we've been yearning for since the pandemic started.

As you know the AGM is fast approaching and nomination forms are included in this Newsletter for those wishing to nominate for a position on next year's committee.

Don't forget to bring along your Christmas hamper donations at this meeting and pass them onto Joann or Julie. Getting them in early give Jo and Julie time to put the hampers together. Thank you.

Anyone who would like to write an article, recipe or advertise in the Newsletter is always welcome to do so. Please pass them onto me at allambee6@bigpond.com or the Publisher for inclusion into the magazine. You can always nominate to lead a trip, just let a member of the committee know the details.

Finally, don't forget the Christmas trip to Wallaroo for the last weekend of the month. If you are bringing children along, please let Jo or Julie know so that they can send an invitation to Santa to make an appearance. Also please provide a gift for Santa to give to the child. All other details in the magazine.

That's it folks. See you next month.

[Sandra]

Details of when meetings are to be held, what trips and events are coming up along with useful links to lots of 4WD resources are included. Read about the latest trip report or view our photo library. Of course, you can download one of our newsletters (back to Aug 2009) including our special 10th year anniversary versions.

Check our FAC EBOOK link as well. www.facebook.com/GawlerandDistricts4WDClub

TRIP REPORT COMPETITION

Yes, It's on again....

The committee has once again, decided to continue with the Trip Report competition this year to reward those who submit a Trip Report throughout the year!

It does not matter whether the report is long or short, serious or funny, whether you have written one or more, your name will go in the "hat" for each report that is written and we already have our first for the year from 2020. Hopefully, 2021 will see a few more as we tick off the trips.

The lucky Winner will be drawn out of the collection of names at the end of the year either at the Christmas Show BBQ or at the AGM.

So the more reports you write the better your chances of winning!

There will be another
Amazing Prize
so please keep-on writing!!!

RAFFLE ROSTER

We ask if all members could kindly donate an item for a raffle prize each month to an approx.value of $15. Please check below to see if your name is on the roster. Without these regular contributions, the raffle would be unable to go ahead each month. To make it fair and equitable to everyone participating in the raffle, please use the $15 as a guide.

Donations can be given to the Social Committee (Joann Wuttke or Julie Sieben) any time.

TRIP REPORT

Mystery Observation Trip – 3 October 2021

We set out from Gawler one by one. It was raining and it didn't look promising that the sun would ever come out. As we tried to get our heads around the multiple pages of instructions we did wonder if there were any tricks like, read ahead. Was this achievable without a divorce? Where on earth would we end up? I for one didn't even give the fruit we were carrying a thought until we saw the fruit fly signs. At least one of our number though didn't see the back of the first page where all the bonus points were. Whoopsy!

Bumnuts at Williamstown had the server look at me askance (we were the first car in) and no, Lyn, bumnuts don't come with jam and cream. Some local dog walkers were hijacked several times before retreating to their home away from the mad crowds wanting pictures. Thru Mt Pleasant and Eden valley, absolutely gorgeous at this time of year. The clouds were clearing as we did bitumen and dirt, scanning for answers.

The rain cleared once we were through the hills and the sun was lovely. Also made climbing in and out of the car more agreeable. But by now the wind was coming up. After a twist of the tongue that needed to be recorded (hard to hear because of the wind!) we headed for Sedan. What wonderful scenery as we descended into the valley. Frogs and riddles from the deli and some shelter in the hall for morning tea. The wind by now had really picked up.

To the river! Thanks to Ferryman Saul then a stop at the cemetery for some more answers. Galga and Bakara ... never heard of them ... but we went there anyway just to see. The little blue sign, the big black tyres, was the VW white or grey?? Lots of little things to gather. Don't miss the Minion! Across the river again at Walker Flat, thanks Troy. By now the wind was gale-force but Sandra and Wayne's resourcefulness had us sheltering at the hall on the riverbank.

So now we get all the answers, the VW was white, the truck red and the chairs blue (we missed that one). Winners of the day: Julie & Chris with 67. Bumnut winners: Frank and Cathy. Chicken Dance: Julie and Chris again. We had stopped at Nildottie in the playground so we could do our videos without anyone seeing us, but for the strange looks from the gentleman who was coming out of the toilet that saw us shake our tail-feathers. The winning trophy of indeterminate value and extraordinary artistic expertise now sits perfectly with a pair of our equally beautiful wooden salt and pepper shakers, just like a little family.

Thanks Sandra and Wayne for an excellent day out. A little unusual and absolutely great fun.

RECIPE

In lieu of no recipes forthcoming, I found this one in Westprint Friday Five. I haven't tried it but the "recipe" and the story behind it follows, try it on your next extended trip.

Cooking in the camp oven - Bread and butter pudding.

What the recipe should have been:

Place following in a thick based casserole dish

Six slices bread spread with butter and apricot jam.

Half cup of sultanas

Beat 600mls milk with two eggs and 2 tablespoons sugar.

Pour over bread mix. Place casserole dish in a deep baking tray and fill baking tray with approx. 3cm water. Bake in the water bath in a moderate oven 40 mins or until golden brown. Serve with cream or ice-cream.

What the recipe actually was:

Part of a loaf of bread in danger of going stale/mouldy spread with margarine. Butter and jam are too messy when we are doing long days.

Milk powder, sugar, water.

Two eggs bought from a mailbox along the Oodnadatta Track. ($10/dozen seems like a lot compared to a supermarket - but fresh eggs out bush? Well worth the spend!)

Leftover hiking snacks. Homemade mix of cranberries, almonds, pistachios, white indefinable buds. (These cannot be white chocolate as they don't melt, and if it was chocolate there would be no leftovers).

Note: If you have lollies in your trail mix make sure you eat these first. (There was one rogue red frog in our mix).

Mix milk powder, water, eggs and sugar and pour over bread.

Place into whatever baking dish/cake pan you have and then put in camp oven. Keep dish raised from the base of the oven if possible. Our square pan sits a couple of cm above the base of the oven (something about a square peg and round hole).

Place on coals and if your oven allows, place coals on top. Add hot coals on top after 20 mins. Cook about 30 mins and then check.

It is cooked when it is springy to touch. Take photo immediately as it looks amazing straight out of the oven but after 20 seconds deflates to resemble pic above.

Serve immediately.

In our case, in the bowls our in-laws refer to (lovingly I'm sure) as the cat's bowls. A red gooey mess probably means that you cooked a red frog. Scoop this part out. It doesn't taste good. Enjoy the leftovers cold for breakfast or reheat over the next night's campfire.

ANSWER TO "WHERE AM I?"

Appila Springs.

Near Appila Mid North South Australia.

Appila was once called Yarrowie. However because of other towns in the Mid North, like Tarcowie, Terowie, Caltowie, Willowie as well as Canowie Belt & Whyte Yarcowie Yarrowie's name created a lot of confusion and was changed to Appila-Yarrowie in February 1877. Eventually it became just Appila. Why so many Owie's? The name Owie is said to be adapted from an Local Aboriginal word for "Waterhole".

Appila Spring itself is a natural spring that was widely used in the late 1800's to water stock travelling to the Jamestown and Gladstone markets, and is home to many native species. It's the perfect spot for self-sufficient travellers seeking an amazing experience and who want to experience this secluded beauty for themselves. It is a tranquil spot that allows you to escape to a different world.

The camping ground is in a quiet nook accessible off Appila-Tarcowie Rd and has public toilets and a picnic area. Bring your own firewood, water and stove. Please note Camping is prohibited during the November-April fire-ban season. I have only seen the springs dry once in the summer of 2020.

FRIDAY FUNNIES:

Did I read that sign right?

- Toilet out of order. Please use floor below.
- In a laundromat: automatic washing machines: please remove all your clothes when the light goes out.
- In a London department store: bargain basement upstairs
- In an office: would the person who took the step ladder yesterday please bring it back or further steps will be taken.
- In an office: after tea break, staff should empty the teapot and stand upside down on the draining board.
- Outside a second-hand shop: we exchange anything - bicycles, washing machines, etc. Why not bring your wife along and get a wonderful bargain?
- Notice in health food shop window: closed due to illness.
- Spotted in a safari park: Elephants, please stay in your car.
- Seen during a conference: for anyone who has children and doesn't know, there is a day care on the 1st floor.

- Notice in a farmer's field: the farmer allows walkers to cross the field for free, but the bull charges.
- Message on a leaflet: if you cannot read, this leaflet will tell you how to get lessons.
- On a repair shop door: we can repair anything. (please knock hard on the door - the bell doesn't work.)

Late one night Jack takes a short cut through the cemetery. Hearing a tapping sound he becomes scared and quickens his pace. The tapping gets louder and Jack is now scared out of his wits. Then he notices a man chiselling a tombstone. "Thank goodness," Jack says to the man. "You gave me the fright of my life. Why are you working so late?" "They spelt my name wrong" was the reply!!

A survey of personnel executives at 200 of the Fortune 1,000 companies provided the following unbelievable but true examples of job applicant behaviour.

"The reason the candidate was taking so long to respond to a question became apparent when he began to snore."

"When I gave him my business card at the beginning of the interview, he immediately crumpled it and tossed it in the wastebasket."

"(The applicant) insisted on telling me that he wasn't afraid of hard work. But insisted on adding he was afraid of horses and didn't like jazz, modern art, or seafood."

"She actually showed up for an interview during the summer wearing a bathing suit. She said she didn't think I'd mind."

"He sat down opposite me, made himself comfortable, and proceeded to put his foot up on my desk."

"The interview had gone well, until he told me that he and his friends wore my company's clothing whenever they could. I had to tell him that we manufactured office products, not sportswear."

"(The applicant) applied for a customer service position, although, as he confided, he really wasn't a people person."

"Without asking if I minded, he casually lit a cigar and then tossed the match onto my carpet- and couldn't understand why I was upset."

"On the phone, I had asked the candidate to bring his resume and a couple of references. He arrived with the resume and two people."

If you want to save money at Xmas, now's the perfect time to tell the kids that Santa didn't make it through the pandemic
